Junior Appalachian Musicians

Hancock County, TN

WHICH ONE WOULD YOU PICK?

FIDDLE
A violin played in a folk tradition with a bold, lively sound.

BANJO
With roots in African tradition, the banjo became a true Appalachian sound.

GUITAR
Often provides the rhythmic foundation and brings people together.

MANDOLIN
A small instrument with a bright, chiming sound and eight strings.

BASS
The largest instrument in the group with a deep, steady rhythm.

Traditional Music. A New Generation.

The Gladson Family shares their passion and experience with Hancock County JAM, teaching and encouraging local youth to learn traditional Appalachian music, play alongside others, and become part of a musical tradition rooted in our community.

Program at a Glance

AGES
Under 18 years old

INSTRUCTION
Fiddle · Clawhammer Banjo
Guitar · Mandolin · Bass · Singing

SCHEDULE
Tuesday afternoons
Fall & Spring · 12-week sessions

LOCATION
Elm Springs Baptist Church
Fellowship Hall
303 Snake Hollow Road
Sneedville, TN 37869

TUITION & INSTRUMENTS
Sliding-scale tuition and traditional instruments available for loan for free.

Learn. Play. Grow. Be Part of the Tradition.

Questions or Interested in the Next Session?

Parents may call or email anytime to put their child's name on the list.

Juliet Gladson · Program Director
865-235-9562
hancock@jamkids.org
gladsonfamilyband.com/hancockjam

Scan to learn more about Hancock County JAM

Hancock County JAM is funded in part by the IBMA Foundation and the Tennessee Arts Commission

The IBMA Foundation

TENNESSEE ARTS COMMISSION

Gold Tone Banjos, Mandolins Guitars & More

Supported by In These Mountains, a special project collaboration between South Arts and JAM, Inc.

SOUTH ARTS 50